And he dreamed... Genesis 28:12a

Gathering in God's Presence

Welcome & Special Announcements

Jeremy Kindy

Gathering Music & Procession

We carry in a flame, the Bible and a prayer cloth. May we trust the Light to guide us, the Word to teach us, and prayer to knit our lives together with God as we begin our time of worship.

Call to Worship (based on Psalm 139)

Great God of shalom, as we gather together to worship you, we are comforted by the knowledge that we have no surprises for you.

We gather to offer you our joyful praise

Nurturing God, even though you know us so well, you choose to lead us along the path to everlasting life.

We gather to offer you our heartfelt thanks.

Understanding God, you gather us to yourself so that we may worship you in love and joy. You accept us as we are, and you love us.

Loving God, your nature is eternal love, and we gather together to share that love with others. Amen.

Standing with Jacob

“Perhaps the most important thing we bring to another person is the silence in us, not the sort of silence that is filled with unspoken criticism or hard withdrawal. The sort of silence that is a place of refuge, of rest, of acceptance of someone as they are. We are all hungry for this other silence. It is hard to find. In its presence we can remember something beyond the moment, a strength on which to build a life. Silence is a place of great power and healing.”

Our purpose is to worship and praise God together, to pray for and encourage each other to live our covenant with God and to share Christ's good news with others. As Anabaptist Christians we will reach out to others, welcome all people, be aware of our neighbors and respond to their needs, and give ourselves to service.
