Naming the demons means knowing the demons . . . The Gospels imply that anyone who exorcises cannot be a stranger to demons . . . To have faced our demons is never to forget their power to hurt and never to forget the power to heal that lies in touching brokenheartedness . . . Jesus hears, below the demon noises, an anguished cry for deliverance. Through . . . mutual touching . . . community is co-created as a continuing, liberating, redemptive reality.
